Counter Strike 1.6 PTR 1.6. Just too frustrating, too simple, too easy, and teh tagline was "Counter-Strike". Map packs work as a good tool for the game however, they have made it much easier for teams to practice with., and 1000s of white students get scholarships or go to college. I can't think of a more powerful example of how Social Justice Warriors are repugnant. White males such as myself are being targeted and oppressed because we can be seen as the root of all evil. They talk about fighting inequality, but they don't care about equality. They talk about making sure everyone has a fair chance, but they are just making sure that everyone has the same chance to be a good and kind person. When it comes down to it, the Social Justice Warriors are just hypocrites. I think the main takeaway to be had from the article is that the Republicans are definitely winning the battle on the social justice issue. Keep fighting for Americans' rights to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. The GOP is the most popular party among Hispanics in America. The GOP is the best party for business, which is why there is a Hispanic caucus within the Republican Party. Hispanics want the government to be small, and there is an incentive for the Republican Party to be small government. Hence why the Democrats cannot appeal to Hispanics. It would be better for Democrats to lower taxes, allow people to keep more
